

Part of the Outreach team, Aakanksha manages The Council's social media accounts, works on newsletters and supports in writing content for the website. She also works with the Strategic Communications Lead to expand the scope of The Council's digital communications.

Prior to joining The Council, Aakanksha interned at the Centre for Science and Environment, and the Centre for Civil Society in research and communications profiles.

She graduated from Lady Shri Ram College with a degree in English literature.