

Ajay Kumar works as office assistant at The Council and looks after the complete ground-level office work. He progressed from assisting researchers on field to performing efficient office data entry tasks. He works on word and excel, involving data entering.

Ajay also fulfils the role of a librarian and keeps an informed repository of all CEEW publications. He also supports the outreach team during events.