

Veena Janet Basil is Executive Assistant to the CEO at The Council and brings over 24 years of experience with her. She supports the CEO's office through efficient handling of information and correspondence, and by managing travel plans, itineraries, and daily schedules. Her role involves positively nurturing relationships with clients and colleagues at all levels of the organisation.

Veena finds inspiration in simple everyday things and prides herself in conducting her work with excellence and integrity. Veena started her career in 1991 and has worked with companies as varied as India TV, NDTV, Mawana Sugars, and Honda.

She holds an undergraduate degree in Office Management and Secretarial Practice from the University of Mangalore. She loves gardening and cooking, and is an avid animal lover, whose love for dogs knows no bounds.